Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 26-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Matsumoto et al., U.S. Patent No. 5,796,428.
4. As per claims 26, 29 and 32, Matsumoto et al discloses an image reproducing apparatus capable of displaying an image of an object (fig 44 and column 2 lines 1-33), picked up by a camera (fig 3 and column 6 lines 1-5) and stored together with direction formation of the camera (column 2 lines 22-34, attitude of camera), on a display device, comprising: a reproducing device to reproduce a plurality of images picked up by the camera (column 3 lines 1-50), on the display device (column 3 lines 1-50); and a reproducing control device to control reproduction by said reproducing device so as to display a group of images picked up by the camera whose direction is a predetermined direction, among the plurality of images stored in a storage device (fig 8 and column 12 lines 50-60 and column 13 lines 14-30).
5. As per claims 27, 30 and 33, Matsumoto et al discloses a detecting device (fig 44) to detect a direction (attitude, column 2 lines 23-34) of the camera and generate the direction information of the camera (column 2 lines 1-34).
6. As per claims 28, 31 and 34, Matsumoto et al discloses wherein the direction information of the camera (attitude, column 2 lines 17-33), which is to be stored in the storage device together with the plurality of images (column 3 lines 15-50), is information as to a direction where the camera is directed when the respective images to be stored in the storage device are picked up (column 13 lines 14-30).
